

THURSDAY EVENING, MAY 15. ABBCRIPTIONS TO THE EVENING WORLD

VOL. 80......NO. 10,495 ered at the Post-Office at New York as second class matter,

EN BRANCH OFFICES:
WORLD UFFOWN OFFICE-1267 BROADWAY, between 31st and 32d ets., New York.
BROOKLYN-358 FULTON ST. HARLEM—
News Department, 150 Rast 1257H st.,
Advartisements at 237 East 1157H st.,
FHILADRIFFHA, PA.—LEDGER BUILDING,
112 Segrit Gyn st., Washington—610
167H ST.
LONDON OFFICE—32 COCESPURST., TRAFALGRE ROULDE.

MORMON IMMIGRATION.

Mr. MULHOLLAND, Chief Contract Labor Inspector, thinks he may arrest the progress of a number of Swedes and Danes who are expected to arrive here soon on their way to Utah, by reason of the law forbidding contract labor._

A batch of new converts to Mormonism salrendy arrived here from Sweden, but the apostle who had them in charge he discovered the Inspector's object in ioning him. Mr. MULHOLLAND thinks there is an implied contract entered upon by these converts with the LACOMER permits foreigners to be denived who have made even this engage-Belgium's Queen is a great whip. She can upon by these converts with the mone elders, and the decision of Judgo with permits foreigners to be dealed who have made even this engaged with the equation in all her kingdom.

There is nothing newer, certainly nothing more gruesome, than bonbous packed in a miniature of the Bastile. Nevertheless it is a reality, chain-bolt, key, turret and all done in Utah, when the Gentiles of the day, everything has boomed.

Woollen ball fringes have been revived as trimming for simple indeer dresses of the summer months; look into Central the American tirely insensible to her charms. If he is young his broading soor disappears under the influence of his naturation to the fair sex develops into a seeming in disappears under the summer months; look into Central the American tirely insensible to her charms. If he is young his broading soor disappears under the influence of his naturation to the fair sex develops into a seeming in difference, which is a minimal manage the most unruly horses, and drive to be a "woman-hater," which is a minimal month as a woman-hater, which is a minimal more of a woman-hater, which is a minimal more of a woman has a woman-hater, which is a minimal more of a woman hater how sourced a man may not arrived.

Sunday night she ordered a carriage and size to the driver at the driver at the driver found only a note in the is young his broading soor disappears under the influence of his naturation to the fair sex develops into a seeming in difference, which is a minimal more really how some is a no matter how sourced a man may none really seems he happens and demanded pay. The driver at the draw the decision of Judge and the decision of Judge and the draw in the draw the decision of Judge and the draw in the draw the decision of Judge and the draw in the draw the decision of Judge and the draw in the draw the decision of Judge and the draw the first had no more rase on manage the most unruly horses, and drive on the visal as a woman has a woman he is never entire sived a blow, and if new recruits can be arred on some legal point, it will be a benefit to the country. Since the last lection in Utah, when the Gentiles rried the day, everything has boomed. Mr. MULHOLLAND's scheme may be a good

WISE GENEROSITY.

A liberal-minded woman has given um of money for the New York Free Circulating Library. The branch library on West Forty-second street was built by done is great and affects large numbers of people. It is a pity that among so wealthy people in New York those the have done anything towards libraries are not more numerous than they are. Boston can still make the metropolis d with its magnificent Public

HE WILL PIGHT.

Police Justice MURRAY will fight the County Democracy for expelling him. He declares the District Committe alone still hostile in his attitude towards Mr. Power. The matter is at a standatill. but is by no means ended, if Justice MURRAY knows what he is talking about.

Tainmany may be a little consoled at his slight scrimmage in the other camp. remains to be seen, however, whether Mr. Munnay succeeds or not in his fight with Power and the Committee.

The town of Cedar Keys, Fla., has been inated for months by a desperado ned CottageLL. He was Mayor of the place and ruled with a shotgun. He terrized the Collector of the place so that

What a lesson of the idea of life! A wretched schoolboy, vexed and humiliated at failing to win a prize by his essay, went home and shot himself dead. Yet older people do the same.

A sirl nut a note in a bottle, threw the pottle in the river and caught a husband This is a new use for the bottle.

SPOTLETS.

The sparrows do not care for use they are not a spiring.

nois James, the African explorer, was n ive to the Missouri explorer, Jessie.

A brother of Thomas Carlyle, who has just died, was an authority on small peets. His hyrother Thomas considered himself an expert on large ones.

It seems strange the Strauss fiddlers could have excited any labor contract dispute. They

The Winter stri is packed away
In furs and camphor; let her stay!
For now, with firm yet soft insistence
The Summer gri chines down the distance.

Pick.

Do American appreciate the fact that the "Jersey Lily" is actually making some money out of the Britishers, and American are let off

How they say Your danced with Victoria. He may be lead a worse dance in his new venture.

ATHLETES IN REPOST.

"Forty" Lawrence, who adorns the roster of the St. George Athletic Club, is happy when dring high over the jumping bar. He is con-stantly increasing the height of his jumps. H. R. Lindome is doing the heavy-weight throwing act for the Anderson Athletic Associathrowing act for the Andersen Athetic Associa-tion. The hammer is his favorite utensti, and in tesses its sixteen pounds avoirdupois about as if it weighed but sixteen owness.

" Billy " Halpin won glory for his country by wraning first prize in the broad jump at an attletic meeting held recently in London. England. He is a member of the New Jersey schlaste much.

Nos lifes has no mose shout him, despite his same. He still holds his position as premier exact of the funther-weight class in the Non-meell Athletic Ciub.

The Wrong Combination. [From the American Green.]
Employed Sorry, sunts, but the house is given full. Somebody it have to double un-Purty (with amonized countenance).

Onne I'm the viotics. I insurertainly continued with any lobeter for anyper. THE WAYS OF WOMAN FAIR.

Mrs. Humphry Ward's taste of success has quickened her appetite for fame and fortune and her new book is now in the hands of the publisher. It deals with a young mechanic who juggles with the fade, erages of thought of life, and finding them of the bive-giass order, settles down to the quiet contentment of the Elemere Brothe

A most fascinating cloak for race-meetings is fashioned in black, cream or dust-colored alpaca. This fails long all around and opens in front to show an inner cape of guipure and velvet. It is edged up and down and about the Medicis collar with a broad, full A Gold Double Eagle Offered for ruche of delicately toned ribbon. The collar and back are ornamented with guipure. and two lengths of ribbon, also braided, fail long and straight from each shoulder down

Mirrors are not in demand for drawing room, parlor or living room adornment. the hearts of young women all over the The showoff-everything surface is counted country. Our cities are filled with eligible among those common things to which the vulgar are addicted.

It was heavy cream brocaded satin, en train, and mourselaine de soie, with the front claborately embroidered with crystal. Rich point lace formed the collar and decorated and diamond scarf-pine caught the lace colwas very wary in his answers as soon as lar, and a magnificent pendant, set with a partner, and yet they are single. large solitaire, surrounded by ten large dismonds, the gift of the groom, was also worn.

a trimming for simple indoor dresses of fiannel and cashmere. These come from the manufacturer's hand in varied lengths. stimes of the finest wool and again of

It is said that Miss Margaret Claine, who is to wed Walter Damrosch on Saturday, will the same benefactor. Such deeds as begin housekeeping with a most exquisite these are worthy of a citizen. The good array of household lines. It was manufactured to order by a French house.

We hear a great deal about the evil of omen carrying all the weight of their skirts from the waist by having them tightly fast- gregation to follow his example. ened around it, writes Mrs. Langtry. No doubt many women have suffered severely from this practice, which is not only wholly thickness of the skirts about the waist tends to increase its size, and thus to produce the very effect which so many women try to avoid by tight lacing. My skirts do not come up to my walst at all. They button on to the of years before launching on the matrihas power to do that. Mr. MURRAY is lower edge of my corset, thus bringing their weight upon my shoulders.

George Sand's library was recently sold in Paris. A few of the volumes were rendered valuable by the autograph inscriptions; for the rest, the principal interest attached to wonders at : When a so-called National hymn is to be sung, why does an audience always come out with "My country, 'tis of thee," to the tune of "God Save the Queen?" Why don't they sing the "Star Spangled Banner ?" There is just as much sense in doing the first as there would be in expressing our admiration for Mr. Harrison to the tune of actresses ?

Here are some things that "Bab"

one man, and when a man gets mad he and address, not for publication, but for wishes the entire universe to know of his indignation ? Why people think that because a man belongs to a church he is a good Christian?
Why girls who learn fencing swing their arms as they walk along the street? Why a woman whose rouge even the most short-sighted can see doesn't hesitate to tel now she hates people who make up? Why everybody doesn't try to say nice be nice, and make everybody else happy? It's just as easy as being disagr oc-WORLDLINGS.

Sir P. W. P. Wallis, senior Admiral of the British fleet, is ninety-nine years old. He was sent to sea when he was thirteen years old, in 1804, and his name has since been continuously

The most expensive thermometer in this coun try is in use at the Johns Hopkins University.
It is known as Prof. Bowland's thermometer, and is valued at $10,000. It is an absolutely perfect ts considered one of the most scholarly men in Congress, is a modest, unassuming gentleman, possessed of a quiet wit and humor. In figure Howling Blue-Jay (picking up a discarded banana-skin)-White man must have heap big fight on cheo-choo train. Lose lot baid-head scales.

"Is it a crime to be a woman ?" cried the for only a miss demonstrat."

DON'T THEY MARRY? ANN O'DELIA IN JAIL AGAIN.

"The Evening World."

Why Do So Many Young Men Remain Bachelo a?

the Best Answer.

Why don't the men propose, mamma! Why don't the men propose?

The old song finds a responsive cebo in ronng men, who have good positions, dress well, have a large circle of ronng lady friends, and may be seen at theatres, sea-The gown worn by Mrs. Frances Metcalfe side resorts or other places of amusement, Barr yesterday at her marriage with Sena-tor Wolcott was one of Worth's creations. In the majority of cases, these young men in the majority of cases, these young men generally pass the thirty-year mark before choosing a partner to their joys and sorrows. Of course, there are cases where a roung man, scarcely in his teens, contracts a basty the elbow sleeves. A toque of point lace marriage with some schoolgirl, but they are trimmed with cream white ostrich tips and as drope in the bucket compared with the ornamented with pins in true lovers knots, number of young men between the ages of set with large diamonds, was worn. Pearls twenty and thirty who, apparently, have nothing to prevent them from taking a life

The young man of the present day who does not possess one of those expensive luxnries known as "a best girl" is looked upon Belgium's Queen is a great whip. She can pityingly by his associates unless he happens during the Summer months; look into Central Park any fine Sunday; watch the beach at Coney Island, Long Branch or Glen Island, and out of the thousands of girls escorted by young men of the average age of twenty-five years, how many will you find who wear upon the third finger of their left hand the precious talisman which denotes a wedding in the near feature ! Precious few. Hence the question :

Why Don't Young Men Marry? The late Henry Ward Beecher was married at the age of nineteen, and lost no oppor tunity of advising the young men of his con-

Rev. T. De Witt Talmage in a recent lectime immemorial this same advice has been unnecessary, even with the present style of handed down from generation to genera dress, but is positively disfiguring, as the tion, but at the present day, there are few who follow it. Why is it?

Do they regard marriage as such a serious undertaking that they want the experience monial rea? Are the girls of the present day of too extravagant a turn of mind for a man of limited means to think of taking for a life Is there-but questions innumerable may them was the fact of their having belonged be put without any satisfactory answer being given, and so the question in general is put to THE EVENING WORLD readers to Why don't young men marry ? Now, boys, come forward and tell why the statistics of this city show a small percentage of marriages by men under twenty-five.

And you, too, girls, give your reasons why the many gentlemen of your acquaintance profess great admiration for you, take you out to theatres, parties, &c., but are as exploited in the newspapers like variety Letters should be addressed to Marriage Question Editor, P. O. box 2,354, and Why, when a woman gets mad, she scolds should be accompanied by the writer's name

POLITICAL ECHOES.

Ex-City Chamberlain William M. Ivins has entracted the habit of smoking very strong Turkish cigarettes. They serve as the nerve

What do Mesura. Ivins and Grace think of their witness, Patrick McCann.now? He was a truth-ful witness when he accused Mayor Grant and Richard Croker of all his troubles. Now that he ascribes the authorship of these wees to ex-Mayor Grace's man. Fark Commissioner Bor-den, they may have some doubt as to his verac-ity. Commissioner Borden was appointed by Mr. Grace and is a member of the Lincoln Bank his pursuit of the joys of an angler.

Chamberlain Thomas C. T. Cruin is a close student; nor has he confined his rese instrument, and the graduations on the glass are ascertained. Mr. Grain's exhaustive stamma-quirements. His H. M. S. Pinafore is a so fine that it is necessary to use a microscope to tion of municipal finances has given him a pretty beautiful piece of work, with a view of the clear conception of the subject, and the Comp-troller's suggestion that he is not well informed in this regard was very naturally recented.

The Fassett Committee will hold a few sessions before Resset. Fassett and Ivine leave for their supreme attention.

The cast is a very good one. Dighy Bell leave to a very good one. the a wills!

The Louisians lottery is in the tolla, but the built frame, light hair, smiling blue eyes and believed the possessed of a quiet wit and humor. In moure the is of medium height, with a slender, well-built frame, light hair, smiling blue eyes and blunds must ache.

Summer vacations. No startling revelations are expected to be made before it, however, until next Fall, when it is calculated they will have. Not a gag worth speaking about disfigures the greatest affect to influence the average his work. Gilbert himself would reloice in his work. Gilbert himself would reloice in

O'Brien as a Republican leader in the Eighth As-sembly District. The Honorable Bernard Hourke is expected to remain, as formerly, the

On His Dignity.

Dick Strant—I can't see. Mose, why you call this little place a "Toneorial Emperium," Why, you have only one chair!
Frof. Harcott—I can, sah; but doesn't dat show dat i do er high-toned 'n' enclusive business? All my patrons am shaved by de bosa.

Do You

Have that extreme tired feeling, languor, with-out appetite or siremeth, impaired digestion and a general feeling of misery it is impossible to dea general feeling of misery it is impossible to describe? Hood's Sarasparille is a wonnerful edicine for creating an appetite, promoting isostion and toning up the whole system, giving trength and activity in place of weakness and

Hood's Sarsaparilla Soid by all druggists. $1; six for $5. Prepar by C. I. HOOD & CO., Lowell, Mass. 100 Doses One Dollar

A New Contest Opened to Readers of Spook-Priestess Diss Debar Arrested for Eeating a Hotel in Rome.

She Passed as Mrs. Holland, but Was Recognized By a Clergyman.

That ample "Princess" Editha Lolita Montez, Countess Langfeldt, is again in Like most royal systograts, the Princess has a notion that she ought to be cared for out of other people's pockets. She has an aristocratic disinclination to toil, also, and it is the combination of these two truly aristocratic ideas that has brought her down shadow of the Vatican, that Her Grace appears, and these horrid materialistic Italian gendarmes have got her in limbo, according to cable despatches received this morning. Madame the Princess has been "doing the Continent" as a British subject, leaving behind her a trail of uppaid hotel bills, and the hotel landlords of Europe swear at her memory under several names and in several

May u she was at Pies. From there she engaged apartments by telegraph in the Hotel Bristol, Rome. Her baggage was found to be one small box. She registered as Mrs. M. A. Holland, London. For four days she lept up a run on the delicacies of the market. Her carriage bilis were appalling, and when, on the fourth day, the landlord, Sig. Frontini, crew rest-wine cellar and banqueted on the highest ance.

The police were informed and they found that madame had tried to entangle several Catholic clergymen during he: stay in Rome. She told Dr. Nevin that she was a novibate nun and that Mgr. Campbell, of the septch College, was at the head of a Catholic conspiracy to drag her into a nunnery against her will.

She called on Lord Dufferin and told him that she was a British subject, escaped from a nunnery and asked his protection from the inquisition.

a numery and asked historotection from the inquisition.

When that cruel, cold-hearted man demanded proof of her identity she dramatically displayed a portrait of 'our Queen, victoria,' but the ex-viceroy of India, still scentical, wanted to see her English passport, ami as she had none that game was up. The police tracked her from place to place, till last night they located her in the Convent of the Poor Servants of the Mother of God, where she had two luxurious rooms and talked largely of taking a whole suite.

Madame had gone to bed and the police were stationed about the convent for the night. The Mother Superior, becoming frightened, aroused madame and turned her out at midnight, when she was received with open, arms by the police, and hurried off to prison much against her haughty protests.

She displayed a ring which she said Fore protests.

She displayed a ring which she said Pope Leo had placed upon her hand, and defied the police to harm her. But arrived at the office of the Prefect the ring had disapproximately.

office of the Prefect the rirg had disappeared.

The property found upon her consisted of a fine-toeth c mb. Hartman's 'Hack Art' and a book on magic, in which volumes were many underscored passages.

There was a lotter in her own hand date! Nay 9 and addressed to 'Mar. Campbell, Pax Christi, "which talked vaguely about some wrong act of his by which he attempted to use her as a tool to obtain 4,000f, from the Commissionaire-General of the Holy Office

It was signed 'M. A. Holland," but when she was confronted by an American dergyman who called her by her right name Mmc. Dis Debar nearly fainted.

The was consigned to a cell to await her trial on charges of awinding the Hotel is Bristol, cheating a boarding-house keeper, beating a cabman's bill and uttering a false and worthless draft.

Other yietims are looked for, and at any

"PINAFORE."

Very few theatrical productions are as good as their managers have aunounced them to be. One has to wink at a very large discount, and the process is not always agreeable. A pleasant exception to this rule is the revival of "Pinafore," at the Academy of Music. Kind words have preceded its advent, but the words have not been kind enough. The revival is really a capital one, scenically beautiful and vocally ad-

J. C. Duff is a clever comic opera manipulator, and he is seen at his best in this "Pinafore" revival. Of course, Gilbert and Sullivan's first success is one of the easiest comic operas to produce—and to produce with picturesque precision-pos sible to mention. There is one set that must same deck at night. Mr. Duff. however, has not contented himself with fulfilling the mere scenic re-quirements. His H. M. 8. Pinafore is a sea at the back, large ships lurching in all directions, and at night twinkling lights. a Bell's interpretation. W. H. Clark is fairly successful as Capt. Corcoran and Chaunces Olcott acceptable as Ralph. Miss Gertrude Sears is astonishingly good as Josephine. Miss Sears has a clear, accurate and excellently trained voice. Her Josephine is a vocal treat. Mrs. Bell as Butteroup contributes a jovial and correct impersonation.

In an Elevated Train. Jones-By the way. Brown, where is you

Brown-Oh, I haven't seen him for two Brown—Oh, I haven't seen him for two years; he's 'way out in Montana. Where is your brother?

Jones—Oh, I haven't seen him for five roars; he's away out in Brooklyn.

EVERY Housewife
RVERY Counting-Room
EVERY Counting-Room
EVERY Paristy Mechanic
EVERY Body able to held a brush

Whou balty was sick up gare her Capteria When the was a shild, the cried for Casteri When also become Him site citing to Uniter When site and Chaldpun site gave these Cast

For the most popular Amateur Baseball Ciub in N. w York, New Jersey or Connecticut.

SIGNED-

THE WORLD: THURSDAY EVENING, MAY 15, 1890.

ADDRESS-

must fill out the above ballot and inclose it non envelope addressed to the Popular Baseball Club Editor, Eventso Women, P. O. box 2,354. New York City.

Any person may vote. The contest will close early so that the dub winning the beautiful banner which will be the prize may display it for more than half of the present season. whole of the banner printed above the

TO AMATEUR BALL-TOSSERS

Contest Opens To-Day.

The coupon to be used in The Evening World's Amateur Baseball Club contest is 147 W.42d St., near Broadway; $15, printed for the first time on the second page of to-day's issue.

It will appear daily until the contest The competition is open to all the amateur baseball clubs of New York. New Jersey and Connecticut, and a beautiful prize banner awaits the club which receives the greatest 11 you live far awar, write for Symptom Sheet. Office hours—0.0 11.30 A. M. 10.4 P. M. 70 mmber of votes. loses.

number of votes.

Amateur clubs are also invited to send scores, challenges and other items of inter-est concerning them and their players, which will be published in the First Edition and Sporting Extra of THE EVENING WORLD. Anybody can vote in the popularity contest, following only the simple conditions printed under the coupon.

BALLOTS

the Lodge and Club Contest.

THE EVENING WORLD'S Lodge and Club crowded before. Contest closed promptly at 6 o'clock last night, and the work of counting the ballots is now in progress.

The influx of ballots at the close was trethe first as there would be in expressing our admiration for Mr. Harrison to the tune of threshed women, bullied men, shot his brother-in-law and—is still at large.

Florida is a beautiful country.

Too much care cannot be taken in blasting rock situated in the midst of dwellings. If it must be done, it should be with the greatest consideration for life and property. This is the right of life and proper an i has attracted widespread attention.

The voting was by no means confined to New York, Brooklyn and Jersey City, or even to the three States. New York, New Jersey and Connecticut, to which the contestants were restricted.

On the contrary, the majority of the contesting organizations seem to have had friends in every part of the country who have manifested a lively interest in their weifare all through the contest.

Yotes were received from nearly every state and Territory in the Union, and in not a few instances from foreign countries.

A corps of inspectors are now at work upon the bignile of ballots, and as soon as the count is completed the name of the suc-

PARK POLICE NOT OUT. The Parade Postponed So as Not t Spoil Their New Uniforms.

The annual parade and review of the park olice, which was to have been held on the postponed until to-morrow at 10 o'clock. The police don their new Summer uniform sible to mention. There is one set that must always look well. The deck of H. M. S. Pinafore at noon in the first act can easily be arranged. The second set shows the same deck at night.

To the parade, and it was considered rask to subject them to a drenching at the start. An inspection drill was held this morning in front of the Arsenal. It was witnessed by the Police Commissioners.

> Uncle Sam Has Another Fire. A frame dwelling, occupied by the United States Reservation at Fort Wadsworth, was

SHOULD USE PIK-RON

WILL STAIR GLO & NEW PURMITURE PURMISHED AT the MILL STAIR THUMAN CHARACTER AT THE MARKET PURMISHED AT THE PURMISHED AT T

MISS WASSWEILER'S STORY.

SHE SUFFERED WITH CATARRII FOR NINE LONG YEARS.

Patent Medicines and Physicians Falled to Help Her, and at Last She Went to Doctors Copeland and Blair, and She Says They Have Cured Her.

In a recent interview with the writer, Miss Sophia Wastweller, an expert on infants wear, compleyed at its Wastwell at the Work and who resides at 1000 the are. Brecking, and "Yer nine rears I had chronic catarrh. I did everything I could think of to gain roller, used patent rouncies, and was under the care of pitymesans until my small slaary was entirely absorbed. I often strated myself of the necessaries of life that imight have more money to execut in trying to rid myself of this diagnosting disease.

MISS SOPHIA WASSWEILER,

MISS SOPHIA WASSWEILER, 1019 4th are, Brooklyn.

"Only these who suffered from the discuss as fave can form any idea of how I suffered. My now would slog up until I could sorresp breather styles were fulled ringing sounds and my hearing became dult. All day I would be keep tough slows and sult and expiting up the drift, yellow mucos or phleam which keep tested drifting into my threat. My torest would be one so sere at times that I could not weaklow without pain, I grew gradually worse in spite of everything I could do. I passed a miserable existence. Most of the time I was more deal than alive.

"I read of persons who were affected like myself, and who had been cured by Dra. Copeland and Blair, I, too, sought their ad, and am pleased to state that they have cured me of my trouble."

DOCTORS "The Evening World's" New Baseball COPELAND & BLAIR 92 5th Ave., near 14th St.;

> BROOKLYN OFFICE: 149 PIERREPONT ST.,

314 Aus Comer 594 St

A few specials for Friday Silk and Wool - - - $1.45 A Corps of Inspectors at Work in and Saturday that should crowd our Basement with All Silk Scarfs - - - $1.90 buyers as it never was Glassware.

Tumblers..... 2c. each The influx of ballots at the close was tremendous, and it will probably be several days before the exact result can be definitely Glass Table Sets, consisting of Butter-Dish, Sugar-Bowl, Cream-Pitcher and

Spoon-Holder 24c. set Glass Fruit-Saucers 17c. doz. Thin Crystal Tumbler, star engraved..... 59c. doz. ater Sets-Tray, Pitcher and 6 Goblets..... 49c. set Berry Bowls, Dishes, oblong and square; in fact, everything in this department TO-MORROW at less than cost to manufacture. SWEEPING REDUCTION in Crockery. Beautiful Vase Lamp, with brass mountings and dome shape to match, duplex burner. Bloomingdale

Third Ave., cor. 59th St. LOOKS BAD FOR SISTARES.

August Heckscher Charges Them with Hypothecating His Securities.

All efforts to procure $75,000 bail for William H. M. Sistare, the head of the bankrupt firm of George K. Sistare's Sons. have been unavailing, and he is still a prisoner in Ludlow Street Jail. flarold Clemens, the remaining partner, flarold Clemens, the remaining partner, remains out of the State, and it is reported that he is very ill at the house of a relative in Connecticut.

At any rate, there is no prospect that he will return to New York so long as the warrant of attachment in Richard Heckscher's suit for $112,000 is hanging over him.

The affidavit of August Heckscher, in the suit for $120,000 which he has brought against Sistare and Clemens, contains some

Stocks, bonds and other securities which had been confided to them by the plaintiff, were immediately hypothecated and the proceeds employed to belater up unsound mancial enterprises, and express instructions wilfully obeyed.

In addition to this, the members of the firm repeatedly made misrepresentations to the Heckschers in regard to their financial standing and the operations in which they were engaged.

As matters stand at present, no further stops will be taken until the appearance of the schedules of the late firm of George E. Sistare's Some are filed by Assignoe Henry I. Davison.

It will then be decided whether or not criminal proceedings will be taken against the members of the firm.

Gleason Makes a Commissioner. Mayor Giesson, of Long Island City, this seening appointed John Allen, ir., Excise

Comprising a complete assortment of every description, suitable for travelling, country, carriage, and house wear. Among which are the following

REAL VALLEY CASHMERES In choice patterns,

Reduced to $95; $120, and $165.

Real Chuddas, white ground, with India

In all white

(Fur Beaver),

Fancy Striped Shawls - $1.25

18th St., 19th St. and 6th Avenue, (18th St. Station Elevated Road.)

JACKSON IS NOW PENITENT.

Mamie Murphy's Slayer Says He Is Sorry He Wasn't Killed. Is Sorry He Wasn't Killed.

with Charles Jackson, the murderer o Mamie Murphy. Despatches from Muskegon, Mich., where Jackson was arrested yesterday, give furher details of his arrest and confession Jackson had been working in the composing oom of the Muskegon Moraing News since last Saturday afternoon. He was passing under the name of Richard A. Arthur and under the name of Richard A. Arthur and boardest at the American House.

Bhortly after 7 o'clock yesterday morning Officer Beach went to the American House and arrested Jackson in bed.

He took his arrest coolly and went with the officer without resistance or hesitation. At Police Headquarters Chief Murphy askedhim his name, at the same time comparing him with Inspector Byrnes's description.

'Charles A. Arthur, 'he answered, 'What's your business s'.'

'I have an order for your arrest.''

What charge, 'asked Jackson.

'Murder,'

"What charge, "asaa"
"Murder,"
"Murder,"
"Where is it from ?"
"New York."
"Yes, "asid Jackson, "I am the man."
He was scarched, and a few trinkets and a bottle containing a few drops of landanum were found on his person.

Jackson talked freely of the murder. He was very penitent, and at times was I tears.
""worder," he said, "because suit for $120,000 which he has brought against Sistare and Clemens, contains some startling allegations which charge that the members of the late firm were guilty of the grossest irregularities in the management of the business.

Stocks, bonds and other securities which had been confided to them by the plaintiff, were immediately hypothecated and the proceeds employed to bolster up unround manacial enterprises, and express instructions wilfully obeyed.

In addition to this, the members of the firm repeatedly made mirrepresentations to the Heckachers in regard to their financial standing and the operations in which they

A JEWELRY AGENT'S LOSS.

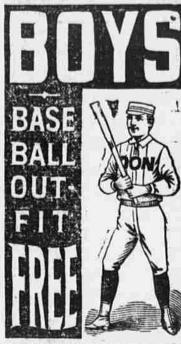

Samples Taken by Burglars. (SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD, I WAVERLY, In., May 15, -J. W. Robinson a travelling salesman for a wholesale jewelry house, lost thousands of dollars worth of samples through the burglary of Tuesday night at the St. Paul and Kaussey Commissioner in place of Jas. H. Reilly, who was legislated out of office.

The property included $50 gold watches. Some and many diamonds. Fire men are under arrest on suspicion of being concerned in the burglasy.

Thousands of Dollars Worth

ARE. THE

কেত্ৰক্তেক্তেক্ত

WITH EVERY SUIT WE SELL

BOYS' SUITS. $1,90 UPWARDS. Broadway, Cor. Grand St.

Dining Tables,

$13.50 & $15. Our exhibit of DINING-ROOM FURNI-Tables grade from $8,50 to $145. You really ought to see these at $13.50 and

Detective Sergis. Crowley and McCauley Bruner & Moore Co.,

41 to 45 West 14th St.,

BETWEEN 5TH AND 6TH AVES.

SILVER JEWELRY. We take pleasure in showing the pretty novelties in our silver stock. They are low priced and sure to be

THEODORE A. KOHN & SON,

DRIFTING TO HIS DEATH. Seventy-Year-Old Thomas Roberts Lost in Long Island Sound. A seventy-three-year-old man, paralyzed and partially belpiess, is either drifting about in Long Island Sound in an open heat or has met a pitiable death. Thomas Roberts went fishing off Milford Beach, Thursday week. He was seventyhree years old and had had a shock of paralysis. The wind was blowing hard from the north, and the old man being snable to manage the boat, drifted rapidly out.

He was seen by one of the keepers of the Shotfall Shoals lighthouse when more than half way across the Sound, drifting towards the Long Island shores. He had a signal of diskress flying, but the lighthouse people were quable to render any assistance owing to the rough sea. to the rough sea.

No tidings of either man or boat have yet been received.

No New Trial For Barker. Judge Cowing to-day denied the motion for a new trial made by lawyer William F. Howe, counsel for ex-aiderman James Barker, who was yesterday found guilty of assault in the third degree on County Demoorat James Heruan.

Contractor Hohn Gone. Contractor George Hohn, of North Hud-son, was reported missing to-dey. He is a well-known builder. His creditors are in-dignant at his disappearance.

Huntov res and dyspopula cured by Capenn's Living I she I Franc. Topoly-dre couls. a appreciated. 56 West Twenty-third St.